

ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest from Different Sections.

A stray shot from a sportsman's gun hit a cow belonging to Allen Ticehurst of West Glover a few days ago, killing the animal.

The seven-passenger Cadillac touring car of Frank D. Spaulding of Burlington was stolen from his yard during Thursday evening and has not been heard of since.

A hay barn belonging to Darwin Frote in Charlotte was burned the first of the week, with three tons of hay, a large amount of lumber and $75 worth of beans.

The Wilson & Grace clothing store at Fair Haven was burglarized Wednesday evening and considerable merchandise was stolen, including three suits of men's clothing, some shirts, two imitation leather suit cases and a straw matting suit case.

As C. R. Vance of South Albany was assisting in driving cattle to Barton last week, one of the cows went wild and attacked him, throwing him against a barbed wire fence, inflicting a gash over one eye and injuring one hand. The cow had to be killed.

Raleigh Revels, who claimed to have come from Florida, and who passed three worthless checks in Burlington, pleaded guilty Thursday to the charge and was sentenced to the house of correction in Windsor for four years. The checks passed were for $10, $15 and $20.

Of the $25,000 authorized capital stock of the Federal Garage, Inc., of Brattleboro, $10,000 has been paid into the treasury, according to a certificate filed with the secretary of state by Thomas T. Brittan and A. F. Schwab, president and clerk of the company, respectively.

George L. Morse of Milton had an accident near Essex Center recently in which a wheel on his auto was broken and he was obliged to leave the car beside the road over night. Before morning it was robbed of nearly everything movable, including tires and rims, but a handbag was overlooked, which contained $18 in silver.

Nelson Gentry, 73 years of age, a former resident of Brattleboro, but later living in Leominster, Mass., died from heart disease Tuesday morning as he was opening the door to his department of a factory in which he was resuming work that day, after being laid off from work for several months.

One of the largest farms deals in the vicinity of Hardwick in a long time was consummated a few days ago, when Frank M. Bailey sold the so-called Alonzo Crandall farm in Hardwick to Alfred Courchaine for $25,000, the sale including all the personal property of every description. Mr. Bailey had owned the farm for 20 years.

Articles of association have been filed with the secretary of state by the Fowler-Nicolet Co., Inc., of Rutland, which will buy, sell and manufacture wearing and sleeping apparel. The capital stock is $50,000 in 500 shares of $100 par value per share. The incorporators are Harold B. Fowler of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., Theodore H. Nicolet of Rutland and B. L. Stafford of Rutland.

James "Jimmy" Barrett, the former baseball star of the Cincinnati Reds, the Detroit Tigers and the Boston Red Sox, who fell dead in his real estate office in Detroit Tuesday, was a brother of Mrs. M. J. Moran of Brattleboro and lived there in his boyhood, also visiting there a number of times after he became a professional baseball player.

No trace has yet been found of the 90 pounds of butter taken from in front of the office of the St. Albans & Swanton Transfer Co. in St. Albans a few days ago. The butter had been shipped from Swanton to Gray's grocery store in St. Albans. Thinking that Mr. Gray would send for the butter after closing hours, it was left outside. It is believed that the butter was taken by someone in a passing automobile.

Two writs have been filed with the secretary of state by John Wallack of Winchester, N. H., against the Continental Insurance Co., Inc., of Brattleboro. Both are actions of contract for insurance on motor trucks, one of $2,500 for a Nash truck and the other of $1,000 on a Standard truck. E. W. Gibson is attorney for the plaintiff. The writs are returnable at the April term of Windham county court.

Seven convictions for the trapping of skunks out of season or possessing them out of season have been reported to the state fish and game commission by Warden Thos. Thompson of Shelburne. Deputy Sheriff Paul Dimick was fined $20 and costs of $11.35 in Burlington city court by City Judge J. A. McNamara. Four Hinesburg men, Walter Smith, Benjamin Collier, Claude Holcomb and Harry Holcomb, were fined $20 and costs, but the fines were remitted on the respondents' pleas of guilty. Charles Goodrich of Hinesburg had 28 skunks, one mink and one muskrat in his possession. He was fined $20 and costs of $11.35.

Joseph S. Joseph T. and Julien Bergeron and Octave Aubin, all of Keene, N. H., and Samuel Simonson of Dracut, Mass., were in municipal court in Newport Wednesday and pleaded guilty to illegally transporting liquor across the international border. The seventeen persons were carrying about 14 quarts of liquor in their clothing when they reported to the customs officer at Newport. They were fined $200 and costs, remitting $200, and were allowed to keep possession of the car, which could have been confiscated by the officers, since it had been used in the illegal transportation of liquor.

About 220 head of Holstein-Friesian cattle were sold at the two-day sale in Brattleboro Tuesday and Wednesday. The heaviest buyer was a man from Taunton, Mass., but the second highest was William Noonan of Vergennes, who paid $2,146 for 13 head. The Morrison Farm of Barre paid the highest price for a bull during the sale, $1,000, while W. K. Farnsworth of Rutland paid the highest price for a female, $520, the cow being four years old. Fineview Rag Apple Maud, she made 24.24 pounds of butter and gave 45.80 pounds of milk in seven days. The last week in July of this year. The cow was consigned by Sandy Brook farm of Hallowell, Me.

The large barn on the Charles Fulford farm in Barre was burned to the ground in 30 minutes Wednesday afternoon. It was built only a few years ago. Lost with the burning was a season's crop of hay and farm products, together with the hog house and silo built new this year, which had just been filled, nine hogs and a calf. Other stock happened to be in the field at the time of the fire. The upper part of the barn was in flames when the fire was first noticed and nothing could be done to save it. The cause is unknown. Although there is an insurance of $4,800 on the property, it will only partially cover the loss.

Free to Asthma and Hay Fever Sufferers

Free Trial of a Method That Anyone Can Use Without Discomfort or Loss of Time.

We have a method for the control of Asthma, and we want you to try it at our expense. No matter whether your case is of long standing or recent development, whether it is a recent Hay Fever or chronic Asthma, you should send for a free trial of our method. No matter in what climate you live, no matter what your age or occupation, if you are troubled with asthma, or hay fever our method should relieve you promptly.

We especially want to send it to those apparently hopeless cases, where all forms of inhalers, douches, opium preparations, "cures," "cough syrups," etc., have failed. We want to show everyone at our expense that our method is designed to end all difficult breathing, all wheezing, and all those terrible paroxysms.

ESTATE OF GEORGE A. TOWNSEND.

State of Vermont, District of Washington, ss.

WHEREAS, application hath been made to this court in writing by the administrator, John A. Foss, praying for license and authority to sell all of real estate of said deceased to wit: including the homestead and the interest of the widow therein, representing to said court that it would be beneficial to the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of said deceased, to sell said real estate and convert the same into money.

And bringing into court the consent and approval in writing of all the heirs to said estate residing in this state, and setting forth the situation of the real estate.

WHEREUPON, the said court appointed and assigned the 14th day of November, 1921, at the probate office in Montpelier, in said district, to hear and decide upon said application and petition, and ordered that public notice thereof be published in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper which circulates in the neighborhood of those persons interested in said estate, all of which publications shall be given under my hand at Montpelier, in said district, this 28th day of October, 1921.

LANDS AKE! ALL MY NICE LIVE FEATHERS BLOWN AWAY

BECOME A PRODUCER OF FOODSTUFFS! Ask PERRY

The man who produces the necessities of life is nearer the fountain head of wealth than anyone else.

The farmer gets close to old Mother Earth and learns the secrets of the ages-making two dollar bills grow where only one dollar bill grew before. We have some fine properties in which you should become interested; reasonably priced, too.

No. 1537. Only $650.00 required to secure this 100 acre farm with stock and tools; five cows, two year old heifer, five head of young stock, two horses, tools, silage, hay, etc. sold for fourteen head of stock; hen house, corn barn and garage. Six-room house, painted; tillage is productive and early; fruit orchard; about 600 sugar trees could be tapped; soft wood for home use; located on good road; children's school nearby. Price for all is only $2500.00 and owner might take a house in part payment.

No. 1420. Main road three miles from Waterbury; all equipped with eight cows, horse, poultry, hay and silage; tools including 250 sugar buckets and practically a new boiling rig. Price for everything is only $2800.00. Terms, $1000.00 down, balance $1800.00 in 12 months, with interest at 6%.

No. 1537. 160 acres which can be made to carry thirty cows and three miles from Waterbury and four miles from Granville; nearly 60 acres in fields, laying especially well; silage is very good; one barn is about 60x30 ft. and one 25x30 ft. and one hog house and grain rack; good stables with tie-ups for 15 head; very good horse barn; two room house; never failing water. Price $5000.00 and owner will include five cows, one yearling, hay, silage, cream separator and all farm machinery. This is a money making proposition.

The road to independence for many is via the farm. Why not you?
